

Logistics Cadre

Join Our Mission

The primary mission of the Logistics (LOG) cadre is to deliver the right resources, at the right place, at the right time, to support state, local, tribal governments, and territories. Logistics delivers critical commodities and manufactured housing units to provide support during the disaster operations. There are eight logistics distribution centers strategically located in the United States and OCONUS to provide rapid logistical support. Also, logistics has established commercial contracts, and agreements with multiple public and private sector partners to provide additional support.

Cadre Responsibilities

- Resourcing and distribution of inventory
- Coordinating and organizing the delivery of FEMA assets as required by mission needs
- Strong computer skills, to include competency in Adobe and Microsoft Office Suite

Reservist Program Requirements

- Reservists are always available to deploy on 24-hour notice (minimum of 275 days per year) unless on pre-approved Reservist (unpaid) leave (up to 90 days per year).
- Availability for deployment does not guarantee that you will be deployed.
- This is a temporary intermittent, on-call work schedule position during declared disasters, not a full-time job.
- FEMA Reservist fall under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act.

Additional Considerations

- Standard deployment lengths within Logistics are for 30 to 90+ days
- You can be deployed anywhere in the United States and the territories.

The CREW Act & USERRA Protections

Please visit the department of labor's know your USERRA rights website for a full explanation of rights and protections under USERRA.

The Civilian Reservist Emergency Workforce (CREW) Act of 2021 was signed into law by the President on September 29, 2022. The CREW Act amends the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act as well as the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) to protect civilian employment of FEMA Reservists when they are deployed to disasters and emergencies, or training for such, on behalf of FEMA. The new law also protects FEMA Reservists from discrimination by an employer on the basis of membership, application for membership, and/or performance of service, as a FEMA Reservist.
